

Weekly events will take place as always, everyone that plays will receive points, payouts will increase as the prize will now be $2.00 per person. We will pay a maximum of 3 places depending on attendance. First place finishers will qualify for monthly tournaments, separate points will be awarded to the the final table and will qualify people for the yearly event. Players spending money for food will receive extra chips chips in graduated amounts, you must still be in the game to receive the bonus chips.

Turbo Events are provided for the first players eliminated and will have 5 minute blinds and starting chip stack of 7500, points and payouts will be awarded. There must be 30 players in the main event before a turbo will be held.

Monthly events will be held at different venues each month and will be a combination of the winners from all weekly events of the previous month, same payouts will be in place. Final table points will be awarded to the final table.

Quarterly events will be at a different venue each quarter and will be the highest 30 percent of the point holders league wide. The top 30 percent of the point holders for the Turbo events will also be invited

Yearly events are by invitation only and will all players earning 50 final table points during any events for the previous year, with the exception of the turbo events. This will include the top 8 point holders for turbos for the year

Notes

Points will start over each quarter, with the exception of final table points, will begin again each year. A WSOP package will awarded to the winners of the yearly event along with other fine prizes.

Referrals:

If a player refers a person during a weekly event, that person will get an extra chip for 500, I will put his member number in for a drawing that will be held during our quarterly event and he can win prizes.